Hi Jeff,

Thanks for the thoughtful comments on the charge questions, and for soliciting comments from other experts.

Rachel is on furlough until Tuesday. I left her a voicemail message saying that I will revise the preamble to include the policy background/translation, so we won't need a separate document from OW.

I'll send you a new draft tomorrow morning and we'll take it from there!

Have a good evening,
Laurie

Laurie:

I would like to talk through the charge questions. Let's talk later this afternoon. Does this time work for you?
